

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JULY 7, 1905.

NO. 37.

FARMER'S DEPARTMENT.

FOR SALE.—Pair of 16-hand mules, 8 years old. Apply to B. D. Carter, Stanford, Ky.

I have and will have some good, young work mules and business horses for sale. Josiah Bishop, Hustonville, Ky.

Wanted, 30 acres of grass land, well watered and near Stanford. Want to graze hogs on it. John G. Lynn, Jr., Stanford.

Jesse Carpenter, of the West End, sold to Durham & Cecil, of Danville, a car-load of Aberdeen Angus heifers at 4½c.

NEBRASKA HORSES.—We have three car loads of grade Percheron mares, two to five-year-olds. They will arrive about July 5th. C. H. Kerr on the J. F. Cook farm.

We will have a car-load of good Western mares and geldings at the stock pens at the depot on Saturday and Monday next. See them if you want a good horse cheap. E. P. Woods & Son.

FOR SALE.—Dignity Dare, Red Leaf, Goldust and Naboth, Blue Eyes and Dock Gray males and females, out of registered brood mares. Ponies and Indian ponies, broke and ready to drive, Lock Box, 161, Stanford, Ky.

$5 reward for the return of a pure bred Shorthorn heifer, about one year old, weight, 500 to 600 pounds. Red with horns about three inches long and very small notch in tip end of right ear. A. W. Carpenter, Moreland, Ky.

HORSE AUCTION.—400 head Wednesday, July 12. Percheron Coach, Morgan bred, two to four years old; most of them unbranded. Come where you can buy good horses at the highest bidder. Sale begins promptly at 10 A. M., under cover. J. F. Cook & Co., Union Stock Yards, Lexington, Ky. Col. G. A. Bain, auctioneer.

The monthly crop report of the State Agricultural Department shows that the cultivation of corn and tobacco has been retarded by the rains, that there is a decreased acreage of dark tobacco, an increased acreage of Burley, a decreased prospective yield of wheat and a nearly normal prospective yield of oats.

It is said that State Auditor Hager has refused to pay the claims of the witnesses for the Commonwealth in the recent trial of James Hargis in Lexington, and as a result Sam Jett and Albert S. Johnson are out about $3,000. The claim has been made by the Auditor that the list presented to him for payment has been padded and that in several instances the names of some were on the list who had never even been there during the trial of the case. Jett and Johnson made it their business to buy up the claims of the Commonwealth witnesses at a small discount and later send them to the Auditor for settlement. In nearly every instance a witness would sell his claim rather than wait until the convenience of the Auditor to pay.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed 10 per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

A Glasgow dispatch says Virgil Meadows began his observance of the Glorious Day of Independence a little bit too early and is now at his home nursing a badly wounded body and arm. About daylight he went to the house of James Hulsey and asked for Hulsey's daughter, to take her to a picnic. Hulsey ordered him to leave, and as Meadows stood upon the order of going, Hulsey opened with a shotgun and Meadows was riddled with bird shot in his left arm and side. Hulsey was taken to jail and Meadows did not go to the picnic.

He—I presume you carry a memento of some kind in that locket of yours? She—Precisely. It is a lock of my husband's hair.

He—But your husband is still alive. She—But his hair is all gone.—Judge.

When you want a pleasant laxative that is easy to take and certain to act, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver tablets. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky.

Riches don't make one happy. That is no idle joke; But listen to this, my chappie—Neither does being broke!

KINGSVILLE.

The new trestle over Fishing Creek will soon be completed.

School begins here Monday next. Dr. Warren will teach again.

Walter Milburn, of Stanford, was the guest of his uncles here. Mrs. James Roy and son have returned to Lexington.

Rev. R. R. Noel filled his regular appointment at Pleasant Point Sunday. Rev. Carman filled his appointment at the hall Sunday.

Mrs. Robin Rigney has been ill, but is very much improved. Born to the wife of George Gaines a fine girl. Master Will McCarty is visiting relatives at Ludlow.

John Bowling, of Crittenden, and Miss Mary Sweeney, of this place, were married recently at Ludlow and have located there. In our next we expect to chronicle the marriage of a very popular young couple—the bride a fair Highland lassie—the groom one of our most estimable young men.

A crowd of 22 men and three boys left here at daylight Monday morning on a 16 mile drive. After reaching their destination they encamped with the intention of remaining three days, but the hard rains somewhat marred their pleasure and they returned on the evening of the 4th. However, they had a large tent, plenty of refreshments and caught lots of fish. They had music and a general good time. Following is a partial list of those who formed the fishing party. Dr. C. M. Thompson, Charles Wells, Manfred Chevolette, Dan and Will Hester, Mr. Traylor, of Stanford, Steve Reynolds, Lon Rigney, Green Murphy, Major and Pat Smith, Cicero Murphy, H. P. Baugh, Ernest and Earl Flint, Oliver Smith and others.

John Singleton and daughter, Miss Bessie, are ill with typhoid fever. Tom Carney, engineer, was called to Louisville on account of his brother-in-law being killed while braking. Clyde Campbell has returned from a visit to Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Campbell and little Miss Lucile are visiting in Lexington. Miss Ida Waters returned Sunday from a visit to relatives in Cincinnati. Mrs. Sarah Waters entertained a number of friends at dinner on the 4th. Miss Grace and Master Russell Thompson are visiting their grandparents at Clarence. Miss Effie Webb is the guest of Miss Nannie Terrell Dunn. Miss Ida Sweeney and Master Oliver Smith made a short visit to South Fork. Mrs. Eliza Hart and sons, of Cumberland Falls, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Ann Blankenship. Dave Hicks is quite sick. Mr. Woodall, of Science Hill, was here Monday. J. E. Creighton is night operator here. Mrs. Wm. Lane was here Saturday.

A New Orleans dispatch says: D. F. Evans, the Kentucky boy of Buena Vista, Ky., who left Cleveland last May with the intention of walking 10,000 miles for a wage of $15,000, was accidentally killed to-night about 25 miles from Vicksburg, Miss. The revolver which Evans always carried in the wheelbarrow which he was required by the terms of the wage to push the entire distance, fell out and was exploded as he was passing over a rough piece of road. The bullet struck Evans in the abdomen. The young man was able to reach a farmhouse a short distance away, but before medical assistance could be secured he died.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris, is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for 14 years. Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At G. L. Penny's, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard; price 50c and $1, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

First Citizen—That new neighbor of ours, Mrs. Jones, seems an ill-natured sort.

Second Citizen—How so?

First Citizen—Why, I called her up on the telephone yesterday, and asked her if she had an idea where her husband was staying, and she rang off without answering me.

Second Citizen—I don't wonder—he's dead.—Harper's Weekly.

Forced To Starve.

B. F. Leek, of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At G. L. Penny's Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Only 25c.

A magnificent statue of William McKinley was unveiled at Chicago.

It is now believed the mob which forced its way into the Russellville jail was a rescue party, instead of one bent on lynching the men accused of the Gladder assault. Jim Lyon, supposed to have been taken from the jail and hanged, was found hiding in the prison.

The dispensary system of South Carolina established by Senator Tillman is said to be in great danger of overthrow at the hands of the people, who have become aroused by the corruption which it has engendered. Several counties have adopted a local prohibition policy, and there is a probability that many more will follow suit. Tillman has prepared to make a most vigorous campaign to save the institution, which he created.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburgh, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at G. L. Penny's, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard; price 50c.

"I'm not so particular about speed, but I must have a gentle horse," repeated Mr. Green. "My wife wants to drive, you see. Will you warrant this horse to be safe?"

"Certainly," said the dealer, reassuringly. "He's a regular lady's horse."

"You are sure he's not afraid of anything?" asked Mr. Green, anxiously, and for the 10th time.

The dealer assumed an air of reflection.

"Well, there is one thing that he has always appeared to be afraid of ever since I got him," he admitted, conscientiously. "It seems as if he's scared to death for fear some one might say 'Whoa!' and he not hear it."—Youth's Companion.

A Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve their pain and discomfort, viz: Dr. King's New Life Pills.
